I have been invited by the House Banking and Currency Committee to testify before the Legislative Committee on January 25 and this request coincides with my intention to be present at the first of the conferences with the Governors on Federal Home Loan Administration matters. Of course, that both of these would be in the same time period is not conflicting.

Memorandum for: Robert E. Merriam Deputy Assistant to the President
The White House

I have been invited by the House Banking and Currency Committee to Hearings on Housing Legislation on January 25 and this might interfere with my being able to be present at the President's Conference with Governors on Fallout Protection. It is possible, of course, that both could be worked in if the times are not conflicting.
