standpoint of planning would be to return one group of volunteers from Kili to Enyu to relieve the over-population problem at Kili. These people could help in undertaking rehabilitation of the Island of Bikini to receive the rest. As to Bikini itself it may be necessary to plow under several inches of soil or bulldoze off the top inch of the two islands in the entire areas where the new community would be established. This is to be expected to reduce very greatly the external exposure to those living in the community on a more or less 24-hour basis such as the women and small children. Unless they had totally forgotten how to fish
