Dear Bob:

The Marshallese arrived in Honolulu Friday evening, August 30, and were met at the airport by Bill Streenan and his wife. The following day (Saturday) the Streenans took them on a tour of the city. The patients did some shopping, visited the zoo, and saw points of interest in Honolulu. Bill Streenan reports they were in very good spirits and seemed to appreciate the attention given them.

They departed from Honolulu early Sunday morning via Air Micronesia to Majuro. Sebjo Shoneber went only to Majuro, while
 on to Kwajalein (Ebaye).

While in Honolulu, the four patients appeared to be feeling very well and required no medical treatment. Sebjo dressed the incisions of
 In all, Sebjo took most excellent care of the group. I believe Sebjo should be commended for his conscientious effort in interpreting for the patients and doing such a fine job in making their trip for medical treatment go so well.
