

For OCB Luncheon meeting, Wednesday, February 5, 1958.

MEMORANDUM

General Goodpaster called this afternoon to say that, when Admiral Strauss discussed foreign participation in the HARDTACK tests, the President's feeling against such participation was based primarily on the problem of security. Goodpaster indicated that if a solution could be found to this problem, the President might not object to such participation.

F. M. D.

