Pittsburgh to see the PWR?

COMMISSIONER VANCE: I will have to check.

MR. FIELDS: We can fly up one day and be back
the same day..

COMMISSIONER VANCE: I will know in the morning.

COMMISSIONER LIBBY: You have been there, Tom.

MR. FIELDS: There is some possibility we may have an observer or two for the British tests. I understand they will invite five U.S. representatives to attend this test in the Pacific. The invitation will probably come through the military channel, and I thought to see if we can't get two of these.

COMMISSIONER LIBBY: I think you should try by all means to get two of them.

MR. FIELDS: I think it is about April or May or something like that.

One last question. On the semi-annual report, the practice has been that all the Commissioners sign this report when it goes to Congress. Johnnie has not passed on the report.

COMMISSIONER LIBBY: We can't do that.

COMMISSIONER VANCE: He can't sign it anyway.
Can't you print our names on it.

MR. McCOOL: The way the letter is now made up, his name appears in print. I would suggest we leave it that
