

100-10000

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON NUCLEAR PROBLEMS

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

JANUARY 25, 1960

I	Opening Statement Response	 Secretary of State Director of Defense Research and Engineering
II	Nature of the Problem and Importance of the Problem
	(a) Russian Policy on Atomic and Civil Defense	Mr. Charles Dallas
	(b) Relation to Foreign Policy	Mr. George F. Kennan
	(c) Relation to Military Policy	Mr. Robert A. Lovell
III	Effects of Nuclear Weapons and the Nature of the Problem	Mr. Robert A. Lovell
IV	Feasibility of Fusion Reactors (Materials, Design, Safety) and Relation of Fusion Reactors to Radiological Isotopes, Environmental and Recovery	Mr. Robert A. Lovell
V	Need for State and Local Initiative in Stimulating Research and Development	Mr. Robert A. Lovell

