The President
 The White House

Dear Mr. Eisenhower:

I have received General Persons' letter of June 12 replying to my letter of June 7, cosigned by seven of my colleagues, and I am now writing to ask that you undertake to comment specifically on each of the five specific measures set forth in the letter.

I do not need to be assured that you will continue to attempt to do your best to deal effectively with each of these problems and, of course, I know you welcome the close attention of Congress to such problems.

I recognize very well the immense demand of your job and it seems quite appropriate to ask that you take a definite stand on each of these five matters since they are intimately related to human survival in the face of imminent peril.

I hope that you will see fit to reply specifically to my June 7 letter.

Sincerely yours,

Charles O. Porter
